

Arriving at the venue:

- Navigate to the end of Fishtail Rd in Chama, NM 87520.
- The gate code is 2025 at the river.
- Follow the laminated signs to the race venue.
- Give me a call at 505-469-5182 if there's any issues.

Parking:

- Volunteers will direct traffic.
- Parking is available, but scattered around the venue. Make sure to carpool if possible so as many people as possible can park close!
- Any car can access the venue on well maintained dirt roads, but 4 wheel drive may be easier, especially if there's weather.
- We recommend allowing 30 minutes to park and settle. Remember - camping the night before is available!

Camping:

- Camping will be open the night of August 9th and 10th (Saturday and Sunday).
- Spots are available both close to the start/finish chute and in more private areas.
- Forecasted temperatures at night are in the low 50s. Bring warm clothes!

Food and Water:

- Plenty of potable water will be available at the start/finish area.
- Lunch and cookies will be for sale on August 10th (benefiting the Field Institute of Taos).
- The village of Chama (20 minute drive) has some good food (and ice cream) options. We recommend Rio Chama Espresso and the Iron Rail Inn.

Bathrooms:

- There will be one porta potty available, and additional bathroom solutions in case of emergencies.

Timing:

- Racing will begin at 10:00 AM on August 10th with some pre-race orientation before. Remember parking may take a minute!

Thank you for coming!
